MUCH ENTHUSIASM EVINCED AT FOOTBALL PEP MEETING HELD IN SCHOOL AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT

Russ Hill, Chief Speaker Warns Against Over-Confidence— Kilpatrick Praises Boys for Faithful Work

PARADE COMMITTEE NAMED— SCHOOL YELLS PRACTICED

Any one who attended the pep meeting at the Central School auditorium last night and went away with any lingering doubts as to Middlesboro's ability to beat Pineville at football tomorrow must necessarily have been both blind and deaf. The attendance was not as good, by a long ways, as it should have been but the crowd made up in pep what it lacked in numbers and the meeting was one of the most spirited occasions held in Middlesboro in a long time.

Supt. J. W. Bradner presided over the meeting and introduced the speakers, T. R. Hill and Coach J. T. Kilpatrick. Music was furnished by King's orchestra and pep was furnished by cheering led by Miss Lucile Short and Ed Hambright.

Russ Hill, speaking first, said he had been waiting twelve months for this occasion, a chance to beat Pineville at football. He continued that he saw this year much the same crowd of boys who lost so heavily last year made over into a winning football team and that he knew the one thing responsible for this was Coach Kilpatrick.

Addressing the team, Mr. Hill warned them, first of all, against over-confidence which, he said, was the main reason fr the defeat last Friday. "I'm glad L. M. U. licked you," declared the speaker, "or else you would have been so cocky Thursday you couldn't have begun to beat Pineville. Those boys down there are real fighters and there never was a team, no matter how good, that couldn't be skinned by real fighters. Believe you can lick your opponents, but be too sure about it."

Continuing Mr. Hill said: "Forget the idea that you have eleven stars and think only that you have a football team. Get the idea out of your head that each of you wants to make a fine play or a touchdown and be interested only in the team's making it. If you do this, nothing can beat you, for you can lick Pineville if you fight; you can't otherwise."

Praises Scrub Team

Speaking next to the scrub team, Mr. Hill paid tribute to their hard work and praising them for their work declared that they were responsible, more than anything but the coach, for the development of a real team.

Hill spoke next to the citizens, criticising the fact that more were not out to the meeting and declaring that if Pineville puts over victory again it would be their fault. "If in the game the tide turns against our boys for a minute," he urged, "don't quit; fumbles, poor passes, any thing may occur, but don't quit until the game is over. Then don't resort to alibis. If you get skinned take your medicine and don't kick. We want to beat Pineville and we do it if we make up our minds to. But we don't want to beat them if we can't do it by fair means, by intelligible players or hired ones."

Coach Kilpatrick, called upon next to speak, spoke only a few words and that in praise of the boys. "Whether we win or lose the game Thursday is a draw," he said, "I can honestly say I have coached the best bunch of boys this year that I have ever dealt with." He spoke very highly of the Scrubs, who have been out to practice every night, as showing the spirit of the school behind the first team, and he spoke optimistically of the future of Middlesboro football, saying a good second team always meant a little better first team the next year. "I take no credit o myself for the success this year." Mr. Kilpatrick said in closing. "It all goes to the boys."

Want Crowd to Pineville

Superintendent Bradner, speaking next, urged that a record crowd be prevailed upon to go to Pineville. "It will be a disgrace if we don't have two people to their one there," he declared. "Pineville is united, behind their team," he said, "and we had better be if we expect to win. We must spread enthusiasm throughout Middlesboro tomorrow and take five or six hundred rooters to the game." In closing he insisted that every Middlesboro person buy his ticket here, at Evans and Ramey garage where they are on sale. He appointed as chairman of the parade committee, Arthur Rhorer, who chose J. R. Callison and W. E. Dupont to serve with him. It was announced that the parade would form at the fountain square, drive to Pineville, and parade through the streets there before the game. Everyone was urged to decorate his car in yellow and white, the school colors, and several trucks were pledged to haul the children to Pineville.

After the speaking, the evening was turned over to the cheer leader, Miss Lucile Short and Ed Hambright, assisted by Harry Smith and John Ausmus and the songs and yells of the school were gone over. So much enthusiasm and lung volume was manifested then, that it is safe to say that Pineville will have nothing on Middlesboro tomorrow in the way of cheering.

PINEVILLE SURE TEAM WILL WIN

Field in Readiness for Game Tomorrow—Expect Crowd of at Least 1750

PINEVILLE, Nov. 28. Pineville field stands in readiness for tomorrow's football game between two unusually strong teams in the southeastern section, Middlesboro and Pineville. The field has been rolled and the people of the city anticipate a crowd numbering around seventeen hundred and fifty.

A controversy over the age of Tom Carnes resulted in an examination of records, and records of law. Mr. Carnes' father made out a sworn affidavit swearing that their son was not yet twenty-one years old and showed the family Bible which was additional evidence.

Coach Johnson, when asked what he thought of the outcome of the game, stated that he had no statements for publication. Earl who has played consistently the whole season, will no doubt be the outstanding star tomorrow. To see him in action, is, in the opinion of most visitors who have visited, to see a future All Star and with a good beginning in the future star here in the College gridirons. McDonald, who has been the victim of several bad smashups during the season, is coming up strong in practice work, and will challenge the best work of opponents or contemporaries. Johnson, the youthful center, will play as usual and with the old alertness at handling the ball. Coaches have said that the center is the axis around which all plays revolve, and Johnson has proven himself a splendid axis. Smith, Carnes, Van Bever and the rest of the line have improved wonderfully in their team work and it is nothing else but good judgment to say that Pineville will walk away with the honors in tomorrow's game.

EVANS AND RAMEY HAVE NOVEL THANKSGIVING WINDOW

The Evans and Ramey sales agency has an attractive display advertising the Middlesboro-Pineville football game and portraying the Thanksgiving spirit. A life-size turkey is roosting on a limb, around which logs, leaves and pumpkins form an appropriate setting. The window is decorated in the high school colors and a large card over the Thanksgiving bird bears this legend: "This is Pineville's Turkey."

EXTENSION OF K. U. WATER MAINS TO OUTLYING SECTIONS

Extension of water mains are being made by the Kentucky Utilities company which will provide the city water service to a number of houses. Other extensions are planned and work will begin as soon as possible.

From twelve to fifteen additional houses are being supplied with the service in Binghamtown and six houses will receive water from the main in the West End, near Exeter avenue and Thirty-second street.

Repairs are now being made on the engineer's house on the hill over Fern Lake. The place is being overhauled and will be put in first class condition by the work.

Ye Olde Thanksgiving

President Coolidge Calls On Nation to Return Thanks

President Coolidge's Thanksgiving Day proclamation for the white house calls to mind that the year has brought to the American people two tragic experiences—the death of President Harding and the Japanese Earthquake—but says that such experiences serve to test and refine men and nations.

During the year also, the proclamation says, the nation has been blessed with much of material prosperity. The President asked that the people gather on Thursday, November 29, to give expression to their gratitude and "seek the guidance of Almighty God that they may deserve a continuance of his favor."

The proclamation follows:

"By the president of the United States of America

"A proclamation.

"The American people, from the earliest days, have observed the wise custom of acknowledging each year the bounty with which divine providence has favored them. In the beginning this acknowledgement was a voluntary return of thanks by the community for the fruitfulness of the harvest. Though our mode of life has changed greatly, this custom has always survived. It has made thanksgiving day not only one of the oldest but one of the most characteristic observances of our country.

Hopeful for Future.

"To center our thought in this way upon the favor which we have been shown has been altogether wise and desirable. It has given opportunity justly to balance the good and the evil which we have experienced for that we have never failed to find reason for being grateful to God for a decided preponderance of the good. Even in the least prosperous times a broad contemplation of our whole position has never failed to disclose overwhelming reasons for thankfulness. Thus reviewing our situation we have found warrant to be more hopeful and confident as to the future.

"In the current year we now approach the time which has been accepted by custom as most fitting for calm survey of our estate and the return of thanks. We shall the more keenly realize our good fortune if we will, in deep sincerity, give to it due thought and more especially, if we will compare it with that of other communities in the world.

Death of Harding.

"The year has brought to our people two tragic experiences which have deeply affected them. One was the death of our beloved President Harding, which has been mourned wherever there has been a realization of the worth of his high ideals, noble purposes and useful service carried even to the end of supreme sacrifice. His loss recalled the nation to a less captious and more charitable attitude. It softened the whole thought of the country. A little later came the unparalleled disaster to the friendly people of Japan. This called forth from the people of the United States a demonstration of deep and humane feeling. It was wrought into the substance of good works. It created new evidence of our national friendship which is a guarantee of world peace. It replenished the charitable impulse of the country.

Nation Blessed.

"By experience such as these, men and nations are tested and refined. We have been blessed with much of material prosperity. We shall be better able to appreciate it if we remember the privations other have suffered, and we shall be the more worthy of it if we use it for its proper end. We will do well then to render thank for the good that has come to us, and show by our actions that we have become stronger, wiser, and truer by the chastenings which have been imposed upon us. We will thus prepare ourselves for the part we must have in a world which forever needs the full measure of service. We have been a most generous people. We have been a most blessed people. We ought to be a most thankful people.

"Wherefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States, do hereby fix and designate Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November as Thanksgiving Day, and recommend its general observance throughout the land. It is urged that the people gather, in their usual places of worship, in expression to their gratitude for the benefits and blessings that a gracious providence has bestowed upon them, and seek the guidance of Almighty God that they may deserve a continuance of His favor.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

"Done at the City of Washington, this 21st day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-eighth.

"CALVIN COOLIDGE."

FIGHT OVER SACK OF FLOUR BRINGS 2 TO POLICE COURT

"What is it to you?"

These words, simple in nature and meaning, cost a defendant $29.25 in police court today. From the evidence it appears that a grocer of the outlying section was stacking some sacks of flour on the sidewalk, preparatory to loading it into h wagon. A man walked by, picked up a sack and started to walk off. Asked what were his intentions, the foregoing reply was made which started a fight, resulting in the offender being fined for breach of peace.

BOYS SEAL EWING HORSES CAUGHT SATURDAY AT PAGE

EWING, VA., Nov. 27. Two Kentucky boys, both about 17 were caught by officers at Page, Va., Saturday morning after they had stolen two horses from Ambrose Brooks' barn near Ewing. The horses had been stolen about 10 o'clock Friday night so the boys had evidently made good time.

The boys, who were still on the horses when captured, made no defense or denial and stated that they had started to Jonesville, Va., and were placed in jail to await trial.

PARADE STARTS FROM SQUARE AT 12:30 P. M.

At Least 100 Cars, Decorated in School Colors, Are Expected to Take Part in Processional— Game Called At 2 P. M.

LOCAL TEAM IN PRIME CONDITION—SURE OF VICTORY

Everyone who has a car who will attend the Middlesboro-Pineville football game in Pineville tomorrow is expected to join in the big parade from Middlesboro. These cars are asked to be decorated in the school colors, yellow and white, and to meet at the fountain square at 12:30 o'clock when the parade will start. Two bands will be included in the parade which is expected to consist of more than one hundred cars.

These cars will drive to Pineville, then parade up and down the principal streets of that city before going to the ball park. The parade will break up before the game as no cars can park on the ball grounds and they will not attempt to parade home. Arthur Rhorer, J. R. Callison and W. E. Dupont are in charge of the parade and A. M. Kinnaird, W. P. Rush and R. L. Maddox the committee in charge of getting the crowd together.

Several local business concerns have donated their trucks for conveying the children to Pineville tomorrow. These will be driven by competent men and parents who can not go to Pineville themselves will be safe in entrusting their children to these conveyances.

The game starts at 2 o'clock promptly and thousands of persons are expected to be there for the occasion. The excitement in the two towns concerned has spread throughout this section and many fans from neighboring towns have expressed their intention of being in Pineville for the game. Officials from the University of Tennessee will be in charge of the game.

All of the M. H. S. boys are in prime condition for the game and expressions of confidence in their ability to win the combat tomorrow are being heard on every side. However, Pineville has a team of fighters and this is not being overlooked.

U. K.–U. T. GAME ON THANKSGIVING

Annual Clash at Lexington This Year Will Be Homecoming Feature.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 27.—The University of Kentucky's annual Thanksgiving clash with the University of Tennessee will mark the end of the Wildcat's 1923 football schedule. This game will be the feature attraction on the program for the university's "Homecoming Day."

Alumni and former students from all parts of the state and various sections of the country have made reservations for the occasion and it dented size will be on hand for the is expected that a crowd of unprecetilt. The Wildcat's remarkable showing against Georgia Tech will undoubtedly swell the attendance on Turkey Day.

The two southern trips made by the Wildcats have gained for Kentucky a respectable position in southern football, sport writers in the state today commented. The fact that Georgia Tech declined to include Kentucky on her 1924 football schedule, indicates the regard of Tech for Kentucky football strength, they allege. While Kentucky has defeated no Southern conference teams, they dilated, two of the strongest southern teams, Washington and Lee and Georgia Tech, have been tied. Kentucky's defeat by Alabama prevents contention for Southern conference championship honors.

Last year's struggle with the Tennessee Volunteers resulted in the Wildcat's defeat by a 14 to 7 score. From all reports, the present Tennessee eleven has been shorn of its strength, and their excursion to the Blue Grass was awaited today with trepidation.

Coach Winn today remarked he will send in, nevertheless, his full war strength, but with the expectation of attempting several maneuvers that have been little used during the past season.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—For Kentucky: Cloudy and continued cooler tonight; Thursday, unsettled followed by rain or snow.

UNION SERVICES TOMORROW FOR THANKSGIVING

Rev. W. K. McClure Will Preach at Presbyterian Church—Old Fashioned Songs to Make up Music

SERVICE WILL LAST FROM 10:30 TO 11:30 A. M.

Like the early settlers of the country wh met togeher in the autumn and united in a Thanksgiving for the many blessings which had been bestowed upon them during the year, Middlesboro people will unite in an appropriate religious service at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The service will last until 11:30, giving those who attend ample time to attend the Middlesboro-Pineville football game or enjoy other recreation.

The Rev. W. K. McClure will preach the Thanksgiving sermon. He will be assisted in the service by the Rev. A. B. Reeves, Dr. R. E. Douglas, the Rev. W. B. Archer and perhaps other Middlesboro ministers.

"Thanksgiving" will be the subject of the Rev. McClure's sermon, the text being Ephesians 5:20. For wha we should give thanks, when we should give thanks, to whom are we due thanks and how we are to give thanks is an outline from which the holiday sermon will be expanded.

Appropriate music will be rendered bp the union church choirs. Mrs. J. T. Alderson whi is in charge of the musical program says that old-fashioned hymns, melodies similar to those which perhaps featured the first Thanksgiving service, will be sung. These songs were practiced by the various choirs of the city churches at the rgular prayer meeting service last night to beter familiarize choir members with the songs.

BARACAS ENJOY CLASS BANQUET

Music, Stunts and Speaking Make Up Program.—T. R. Hill Chief Address.

Between 400 and 500 persons enjoyed the Baraca class entertainment at the First Baptist church last night. Stunts, music, and speaking, followed by a banquet, made the affair an entire success.

J. W. Allison, toastmaster, promoted most of the stunts, chief among which was Billy Mitchell's speech regarding his chances of matrimony. A number of presents, purporting to come from Dr. J. H. Brooks were given to Baracas for their wives. This was one of the funniest stunts of the evening.

Mrs. Cecil Owsley sang a solo, "Rose of Yesterday." The congregation sang "America" as the opening hymn. The Rev. Sam P. Martin made an interesting address. C. A. Blackburn, a visitor, also made a brief talk.

The feature of the evening was the splendid address made by Russ Hill in his usual rapid-fire manner. He urged the necessity of "putting over" Christ in Middlesboro, of attending church and religious services for better reasons than because it is expected. "I have more respect for the man on the streets who blasphemes the church and who never attends than the man who comes every Sunday simply because he thinks it is expected of him," he said.

Touching on the refusal of Governor-elect Fields to sanction an inaugural ball, he stated that he admired the "backwoods farmer who has grit enough to take a firm stand" for morality.

Plate lunches with hot coffee followed by ice cream and cake, were served. Apples, furnished by Mr. Hill, were given the guests as they departed.

Hurt When Struck By Truck.

Pete Muncey was painfully injured at 8 o'clock this morning when hteW. R Strange company truck, driven by Gardner Ballinger, struck him while it was entering the Motch garage. The injured man was taken to the office of a local physician where it was reported that one knee was hurt, though not seriously.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP IN FOOTBALL

The football game between the high schools of Middlesboro and Pineville tomorrow is creating more interest in both cities than any thing of like nature has in a long time, if ever. Boosters in both cities are determined on victory and the rivalry so long existent between the two towns has reached white heat. People who have never before been interested in football, a comparatively new sport here, have given themselves over to the excitement of this game. It is indeed a memorable occasion.

It is natural and proper that the two cities should back their respective teams to the last, but it is sincerely to be trusted that they will never so lose themselves in a game as to forget the rules of good sportsmanship. Both of these teams can not win tomorrow—one of them must lose. Let us earnestly hope that the loss be taken as true sportsmen take loss, and give credit to the best team, whether that one be Pineville or Middlesboro.

Football is a game that has never been commercialized as have baseball, racing, golf and other sports. It is played by men who know how to fight, men who are not afraid to get into the thick of the affray, no matter how it is going, men who will sacrifice self-glory for the unity of the team, and men who, when they are beaten fairly and squarely are not ashamed to acknowledge it. There is no sport to dirty games, to playing ringers or anything of the kind.

School sports are a training school for life. The boy who plays dirty in a game will do it in the game of life. The one who is not man enough to take a fair licking foursquare will never succeed in life, where he must meet defeat and rebuff at every corner.

Let us get into the game tomorrow with all the fight that is in us, players and side-lines. But let us never forget that half the game is in the sportsmanship of it and the way it is played, and the way victory or defeat is received are as much as the score.

THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING DAY

The season of Thanksgiving is here, when we pause in our daily activities to consider our present conditions of living and to enumerate our blessings. First of all, we are fortunate in being citizens of America, where liberty of thought and action is a priceless heritage. For a long time, the ravages of war had not been known in America and the sacrifices made in the recent World War have served to hasten the spirit of every citizen of our country. Famine and want are strangers to America, except in the slum portionsof our cities; prosperity reigns throughout the land, despite the cries of the calamity howlers and confirmed destructionists. Peace is the order of the day, and a better understanding is being persistently sought between capital and labor, between the producer and the consumer. Our country is certainly on the upward climb.

It is not often that a country which has just gone through a terrible war, giving up a hundred thousand of its best young men, sacrificing the strength and power of hundreds of thousands of others, pending billions of dollars in the prosecution of a wasteful war from which we receive no return but a more humble spirit and a peaceful consciousness of having followed the light of duty in humanity's cause, can come out of the catastrophe with as sure a return to prosperity as is indicated today. Our country is truly blessed in a manifold way.

We as citizens of Kentucky, of Middlesboro, have every reason to be glad that our section is enjoying a fair degree of prosperity. Fewer cases of papuerism and suffering are reported in our city than we have known in some years. Business men report that while conditions are not ideal, still practically every man who has spoken recently on the subject states that his business is better now than in the same period last year. We believe that indeed and in truth we can approach the thanksgiving season with hearts filled with gratitude and with the consciousness of our being especially blessed in our own great land of freedom.

Berton Braley's Poem

There isn't any question
That overeating brings
A lot of indigestion
And other kindred things;
But though our rules of living
Are strict and stern enough,
We sit down on Thanksgiving
And we stuff.

In brisk November weather
With diet rules ignored
The household gets together
About the groaning board,
And though the sky be murky
We care not for its gloom,
We have a portly turkey
To consume.

We're thankful for so much blest by
That we have [illegible]
("Pass a helping [illegible]
And some cranberry sauce").
For all our joys and [illegible]
There's [illegible]
("I'll let another [illegible]
Of that bird.")

Our dear ones before us
Friends, kin, friends, children,
wives,
Come join in on the chorus
Of forks and spoons and knives.
Let happiness and mirth be
About the planet spread
And everyone on earth be Overfed!

Your Health

Selling Dope

What a physician should do as a selling agent or what he should charge for his personal services is a matter of professional judgment and willingness on the part of the patient to pay for services rendered. If the luck has been great and the patient completely cured, he is willing to pay almost anything for his health.

But let me sound a note of warning to laymen. Paying so-called doctors, professors, medical directors, fakirs or others for what is called "dope," meaning worthless "stuff," or cure-alls, is absolutely useless.

Believe in your physician. He will guide and direct you in all affairs of health. If other services, greater than he is able to give, are required, he will direct you to reliable specialists.

Some of the dope—you can have a fine head of hair, even if you are bald. You can bask in the sunshine of youth with new glands. You can plaster mud on your face and have a youthful complexion. You can swallow one of the tablets at night and your influenza or cold will be gone by morning. You can eat anything you want and it won't hurt you a bit; try our free treatment, that's a good one.

This additional advice was offered, also free: "Not to believe in what your physician tells you."

These are a few of the wonder cures.

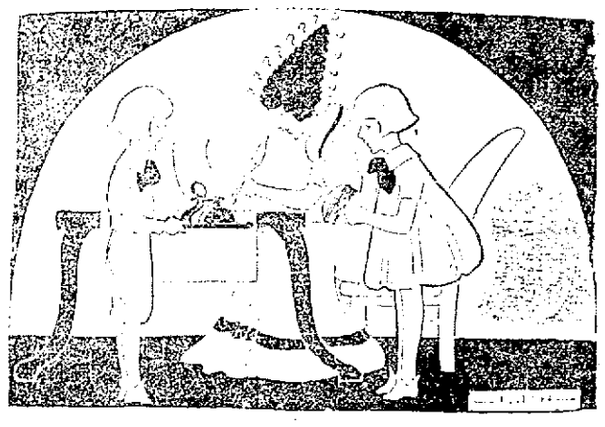
DOCTOR FOSTER GETS A PRIZE



This is the riddle that Nancy and Nick helped the Riddle Lady to write. I don't know what part of it they helped with, for Humpty Dumpty was the only one who was in the secret and he wouldn't tell, but it was whispered about that Nick held the inkbottle and Nancy held the dotter.

Anyway, this is the riddle:

When my good friend and I go out,
I will accept a walk about,
But though I choose the smoothest street
My feet I can't walk! He has no feet!

Another thing that's queer about him
I don't know what I'd do without him
Is that when we go out together
We always choose the wettest weather.

He's very thin, it's really shocking.
You quite could put him in your stocking.
His ribs are gaunt, his backbone shows
He's skin and bone from head to toes.

When we go strolling 'round the town
Full half the time he's upside down,
Yet that's the time he swells with
Puffs out his sides and stretches wide.

At home my friend's like Jackie Horner,
He much prefers a nasty corner.
Because, perhaps, he hates the sun,
For surely he can't think it fun!
He isn't smart, his head's quite hollow,
If I forget him, he can't follow.
Yet he's my friend this stupid fellow,
My woolen hearted silk.

"My goodness!" exclaimed Doctor Foster, who had stopped in Riddle Town on his way to Gloucester (Gloucester). "Nobody could guess that in a hundred years."

"You shouldn't have any trouble of all people," laughed the Riddle Lady.

"I" almost shouted Doctor Foster in such a surprised voice that Nancy and Nick started to dance around him in glee. "No, you shouldn't cried Nick. "You always get caught in a shower."

"Well, I declare! I declare!" said Doctor Foster, puckering his eyes so that his eyebrows quite drew together. "There! as usual it is raining. Can anyone lend me an—" Suddenly his mouth flew apart. "You can't mean you don't say—it can't be an umbrella, can it?" he gasped.

"Exactly!" said the Riddle Lady. "And that's the prize today and you got it. Don't get wet, now, and watch the puddles."

AN INTIMATE STORY OF INNERMOST EMOTIONS REVEALED IN PRIVATE LETTERS

COPYRIGHT 1925 - NEA SERVICE INC.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT, CONTINUED

"You poor, poor dear," said Ruth, coming over to me. "What has that terrible woman been saying to you? You are all in a fever."

Instead of answering I asked, "What do you think of 'Trumping His Heart,' Ruth?"

"It is a very wonderful picture."

"Do you think it is Paula Perier's life?"

"I have no right to think about it in any way," she said impatiently.

"I get so tired, Leslie, when a woman writes a book or a play or the scenario for a picture, of having everybody say that she has put the experiences of her own life in it—particularly if those experiences have a sexual tinge. I suppose it is because in the old days we deluded ourselves into thinking that women were sexless as far as their thoughts were concerned. What hypocrites we all were. We had to cry 'Wolf—wolf' the moment a woman was brave enough to come out and write a story or a play which made the heroine a human being.

"'Trumping His Heart' is the most human picture I've seen lately but one has no right to say, unless one knows Paula Perier better than I—and certainly better than Mrs. Smithson—that it is anything more than an artistic fiction. Did she tell you the story?"

"Yes, and she intimated that everyone in Albany was saying that the hero was Jack."

"Perfectly ridiculous! Of course I am not holding any particular brief for Jack or any other man. I couldn't with my past experience, but it just happens, my dear, that you have adopted a baby that was put on your doorstep and that Jack knows Paula Perier. But nearly every man in town who loved beauty and liked to be seen with a pretty girl knew her. No one knows that Paula Perier has had a baby, consequently it is absolutely malicious to make up a story of this kind.

"I ofttimes wonder, Leslie, if these scandal mongers ever remember that the commandment, "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor,' is quite as binding on human beings as 'Thou shalt not commit adultery.'"

"Ruth, you are a dear girl. You see things so clearly."

"I am only using common sense, that's all, Leslie. Will you tell Jack for me that I want him to take us both, if you are well enough, day after tomorrow night to see the picture."

"But—but Ruth—"

"I must go now, dear. When I come in the morning be wearing your new negligee."

THE WOODS BEFORE THE SNOW

(Baltimore Sun)

Let me with November go
Into the woods before the snow!
The open woods, the trailing clime
That is the border of a rhyme
Where the very heart of song
In all the freshness of the spring
Did worthily and sweet belong:
And now—a bird with beaten wing—
Droops leafless in a reign of gloom
Above the naked graves of bloom.

A creaking wane around the head;
The little road; Oh, let me wend
On faltering feet to follow through
The woodland magic that's so true!
All preparations have been made,
By hat and gnute and squirrel at best
And there the warren of the fox,
And here the rabbit, that so locks
Himself away from hunter's eyes
In sedge grass taller than his breast,
To him an earthwork of the skies.

Oh, tumbling beetle, spider, and—
Be off—the winds begin to pant:
The feel of snow is in the air—
November winds, that comb the air—
With fingers of the sleety, sharp—
Thumb-bungling of a fairy harp—
Are talking snow, are pining for
Against the breast of moon and star;
And now around the road and back.
For here tomorrow yet may see
An ermine carpet spread for me!

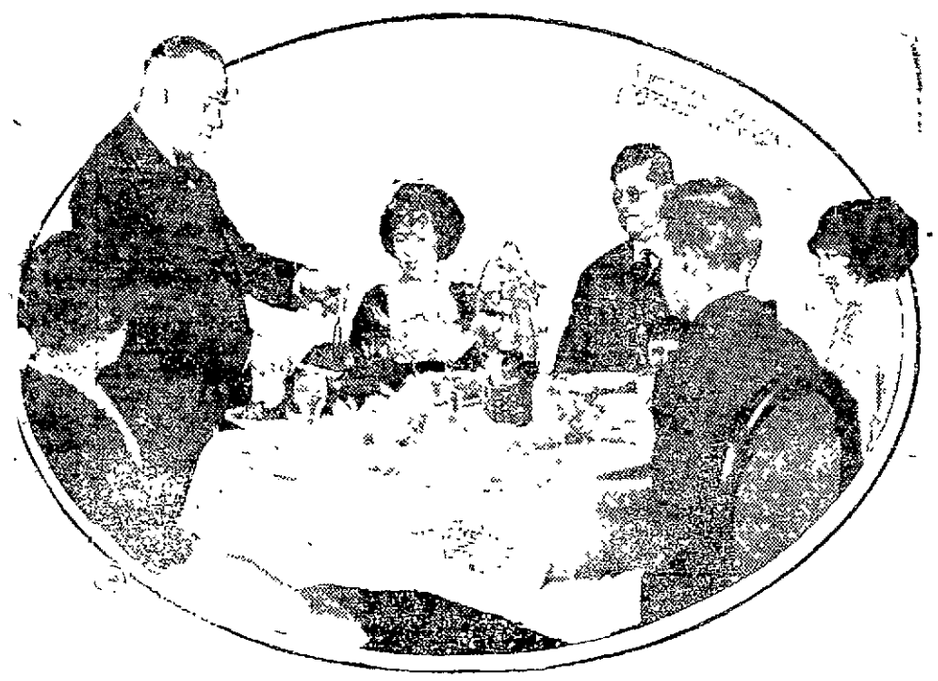
CARVING THE TURKEY IS A TREAT!



THE PROPER WAY TO CARVE A TURKEY

By SISTER MARY

PERHAPS the "mere man" who must carve the Thanksgiving turkey under the eyes of critical relatives would like a bit of timely advice.

Half the beauty of the dinner is in the sight of the luscious brown bird as it arrive son the table for carving. So don't cut up the turkey in the kitchen and send it to the table disjointed and in slices, just because you have never carved a turkey in public, as it were.

In the first place be sure that the carving knife is sharp. A dull knife will mean trouble and consequent embarrassment.

Unless the serving platter si verv large a small platter shouh be provided for the wings, thighs and the drumsticks.

The platter should be placed before the carver in such a way that the breast of the turkey will be at his left hand. He may carve the bird standing or sitting, whichever way is easier.

Take Good Hold

Plunge the carving fork over the breast bone. It should be about the center of the bone. Force the fork in deep to secure a firm hold. Unless you have a strong and well-balanced grasp with the fork the disjointing and carving of the white meat will be difficult.

Make a downward cut through the skin between the thigh and the body on the side farthest from you. This cut goes to the joint. The end of the drumstick is held by its paper collar with the fingers of the other hand. A quick downward turn of the knife blade and a strong pull and twist with the hand at the same time will detach the thigh from the body.

With a second fork place the whole leg on the extra platter or on the same platter by the side of the bird.

The wing is then removed. Cut straight down through the skin betwee nthe body and the wing and around the joint. A quick sharp turn o fthe knife easily sevels the wing from the body.

Slice Breast Meat

Holding the turkey firmly with the fork inserted in the breast, with your sharp knife cu the white meat in thin slices, cutting parallel to the breast bone. Unless a large party is to be served carve but one side.

Now remove the fork from the breast bone. Separate the second joint or thigh from the drumstick and cut each into two pieces. Serve a piece of white meat and piece of dark meat on each plate The stuffing is removed form the inside through the incision at the neck.

The turkey, stuffing and mashed potatoes are served by the host, and if a maid is not in attendance he may serve any other vegetables not requiring separate dishes.

With Maid's Help

If a maid assists in the dining-room, she passes the extra vegetable and gravy, holding the dish on a small tray or napkin at the left of each guest. The vegetables are then put in front of the host that he mak look after second helpinggs.

If the host asks each guest his preference when serving the turkey and the answer is the bromidic "anything," he will serve a piece of white and dark meat on each plate. If the preference is expressed, he will, of cours, observe it.

After the turkey is carved and the against the plateer. Let the knife plates served, turn the cut side down and fork rest across the end of the platter until needed.

Let the Fuller man solve your Xmas shopping. Brushes for every purpose. Appointments for evening if desired.

A Love That Upset a Nation

Two men loved Henriette Girard, country-bred, who journeyed to Paris with her blind sister Louise. The passion of the handsome aristocrat makes the sweetest love story of history; that of Danton—leader of the People in their revolt against a brutally crushing monarchy—forms the most adventurous. The noble lover had saved her from a powerful and wealthy roue who had her kidnapped. The roue was slain, the young noble exiled, the People's leader lost his power—all for love! The love that brought a revolution! The love that brought down a great monarchy, from the ruins of which sprang a great republic. The greatest love story of all history. Sweet, tender, appealing! An empire of new emotion!

PINEVILLE STORE HAS SMALL FOOTBALL FIELD IN WINDOW

PINEVILLE, KY., Nov. 28—Brandenburg and Gibson are backing the boys in the Thanksgiving concerts in deed as well as in words. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the front window of the store represented a football field, with the players Middlesboro and Pineville facing each other. The minature men wore helmets and other football paraphernalia painted on them which could hardly be discerned from the original without close observance. It is a real sacrifice on the part of the company, for when one considers the possible results and profit they would derive from the display of goods in this space then it will be much more appreciated by the local boys. The town is wild with enthusiasm, and if that counts for anything they we will eat Turkey and enjoy it.

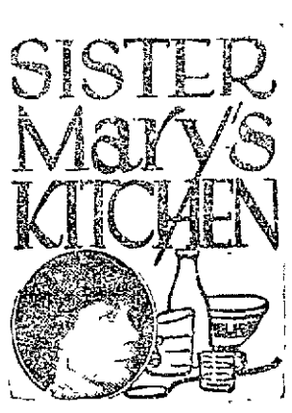
GOODYEAR



IF you are not serving cranberry sauce or jelly with your meat for Thanksgiving dinner why not have a cranberry pudding or pie?

Or perhaps you would "paint the lily," as it were, and serve pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

Or Indian pudding is a typical New England dish for Thanksgiving dinner.

If you have kept your dinner without frills why not late in the afternoon, when everyone is feeling more or less thirsty from much conversation and a heavy noonday meal, serve a delicious 1923 cooler of some sort in the form of an ice or a frappe? You may prefer to serve this with the dinner in place of a heavy pudding.

A delicious drink to serve with the dinner is made of equal parts of cider and grape juice.

Cranberry Pudding

One cup cranberries, 1-2 cup butter and lard mixed, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 3 cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-2 cup milk, 1-1 teaspoon salt.

Cream shortening and slowly add sugar. Add eggs well beaten. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add alternately with milk. Add cranberries. Mix well and turn into a buttered mold. Steam three hours and serve with the following sauce:

Pudding Sauce

Two eggs (yolks), 1 cup powdered sugar, 1 cup whipped cream, 1-2 teaspoon almond extract, 1-2 teaspoon lemon extract.

Beat yolks of eggs with sugar until very light. Add whipped cream and flavoring and whip thoroughly.

Cranberry Pie

One cup cranberries, 3-4 cup raisins, 1 cup sugar, 3-4 cup water, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1-8 teaspoon allspice, 1-8 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon salt, pastry.

Chop raisins and cranberries together. Mix sugar, spices, salt and cornstarch. Add fruit and mix with water. Cook, stirring constantly over the fire until mixture thickens. Turn into a pie dish lined with pastry. Cover with a top crust and bake in a hot oven.

A very attractive pie is made by cutting the pastry in strips and arranging them lattice-work fashion over the cranberries.

Indian Pudding

Four cups milk, 1-2 cup finely chopped suet, 4 eggs, 1 cup corn meal, 1 cup raisins, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Scald milk and when it begins to boil stir in meal. Let stand until cool. Add eggs well beaten, suet, raisins, molasses, sugar, salt and seasoning. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake three hours in a slow oven. Serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with vanilla.

Thanksgiving Ice

One cup cranberry puree, 1½ cups sugar, 1 cup grated pineapple, 2 lemons, 3 oranges, 2 cups water, 1 cup whipped cream.

The cranberries should be cooked and forced through a puree strainer.

Grate rind from one lemon and two oranges. Add to water and sugar and boil eight minutes. Strain. Add orange and lemon juice, cranberry puree and grated pineapple. Turn into a mold and freeze in equal parts of ice and salt until "mushy." Add whipped cream and let stand an hour longer. If necessary, repack the freezer and let stand until needed.

Fruit Cake.

Two cups butter, 2 2-3 cups light brown sugar, 9 large eggs, 4 cups pastry flour or 3 1-4 cups bread flour (both measured after sifting once), 3-4 cup strong cold coffee, 2 pounds raisins, 2 pounds currants, 1-2 pound candied cherries, 1 pound citron, 1-4 pound candied orange peel 1-4 pound candied lemon peel, 1-2 pound or 2 cups blanched and chopped almonds, 2 tablespoons cinnamon, 1 tablespoon cloves, 1 nutmeg, 1 1-2 teaspoons soda, 1 tablespoon vanilla.

Cream butter and slowly beat in sugar. Separate yolks from whites of eggs and beat yolks until thick and lemon colored and whites until stiff and dry. Add to first mixture. The raisins should be seeded and chopped, the currants cleaned and dried, the cherries cut in small pieces, the citron sliced thin and shredded and the candied peels cut in tiny pieces before the cake is mixed. Mix chopped fruits with one and one-half extra cups of flour. Add flour and coffee alternately to first mixture. Add prepared fruit and nuts, spices and vanilla. Dissolve soda in molasses and add the last thing. Mix the cake well after the addition of each ingredient. Turn into well oiled and floured deep cake pans, cover with buttered paper and steam three hours and bake one and one-half hours in a slow oven. Or the cake is baked four hours in a very slow oven. The nutmeg of course is grated before using. You will like your fruit cake much better if it is steamed and baked rather than simply baked. The cake will be moister an dthe fruits and spices blended perfectly.

The molasses and coffee can be reduced to one-half cup of each and a glass of currant jelly added to the rule.

This rule makes three loaves.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY

Middlesboro People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers

Middlesboro testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Middlesboro who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Middlesboro people who again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here's a Middlesboro case:

Mrs. Mary Hale, 19th St., says: "No remedy could be better for the kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills. My back hurt and my kidneys were sore. My kidneys were weak and irregular, too, but the use of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me complete relief." (Statement given February 10, 1912.)

Added Praise

On March 15, 1921, Mrs. Hale said: "I am just as glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills now as I was several years ago for they have proven their merit in my case. I haven't felt the need of a medicine for kidney trouble in several years."

DIDN'T KNOW HIS BROTHER

"My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which he said described his case perfectly. The first dose of it gave him great relief and in a month he was good as ever." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At Lee's and druggists everywhere.

Thedford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine (Vegetable) Praised by the Head of a Louisiana Family.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly.

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine.

"We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver.

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has.

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

If your liver gets out of fix, take Black-Draught. It will help to drive the bile poisons and other unhealthful matters out of your system.

GOOD SOAP FOR TWO CENTS A POUND

Make It At Home By This Easy Process—Takes Less Than 30 Minutes.

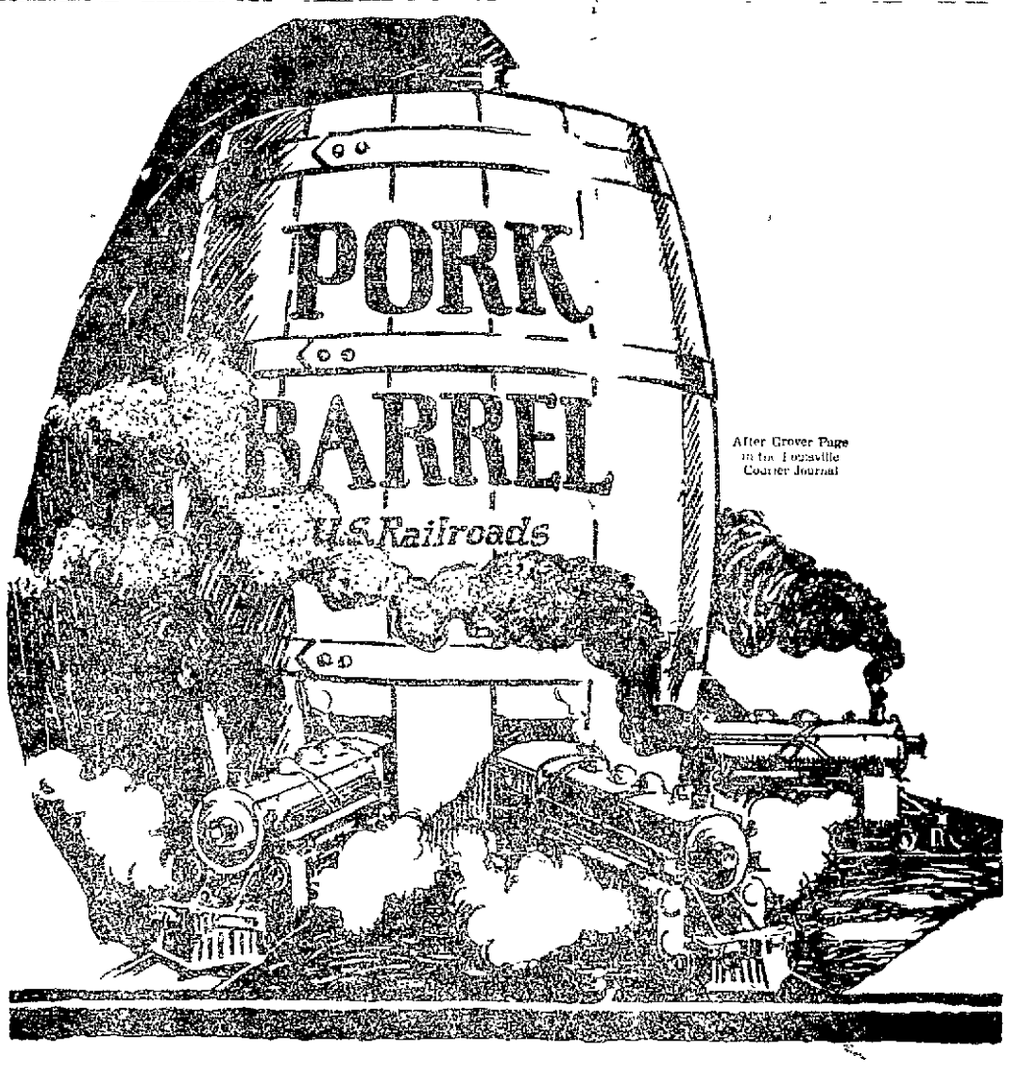
Nowadays, more and more women are doing as their mothers did and are making their own soap. If you have never tried it, you will be surprised to see how easy it is to make good soap, soft soap, hard soap or floating soap, just by using kitchen scraps and waste grease together with a can of Merry War Lye, the safe and sure soapmaker.

In the old days when soap was made by the boiling process it took nearly all day to make a kettle of soap. Now it is hardly any work at all—requires no boiling—takes less than 30 minutes. Saves you money and gives you all the pure, clean soap you need for kitchen, laundry and all household purposes.

You will find simple directions for soap-making on the label of every can of Merry War Lye.

Merry War Powdered Lye comes in a convenient can with revolving sifting top that cannot come off, cannot get lost, recloses tightly and preserves contents. It is economical to buy and easy to use.

MERRY WAR POWDERED LYE
"Makes Mighty Good Soap"



Do not put the Railroads Back in this Roundhouse~

Certain demagogue politicians and others who hope to profit thereby, are agitating Government ownership and operation of the railroads. In order to further their selfish interests, they would put railroads in the Governmental "Pork Barrel", and thus pile on the back of the patient, tax-paying public a still heavier load.

Let us not forget the recent, wartime experience of Government control. During that twenty-six-month period there was a net loss of more than $1,200,000,000, which had to be met by appropriations from the general treasury. And this does not include the payments under the guaranty continuing the standard contract for a period of six months after the roads were returned to their owners, March 1, 1920; nor does it account for the enormous deferred labor claims; and the condition of under-maintenance; all the items together aggregating a total of $1,900,000,000.

Our late President Harding, a close student of the railroad problem, said at Kansas City: "I believe it (Government Ownership) would be a colossal blunder which would destroy initiative, infect us with political corruption, create regional jealousies and impose incalculable cost on the public treasury."

There are also a few misinformed but honest and well meaning people who believe that Government ownership would be the solution of the transportation problem. The Louisville & Nashville Railroad joins with the other roads of the country in asking that these get all the facts in the case and consider well the consequences of using the National "pork barrel" for a railroad roundhouse.

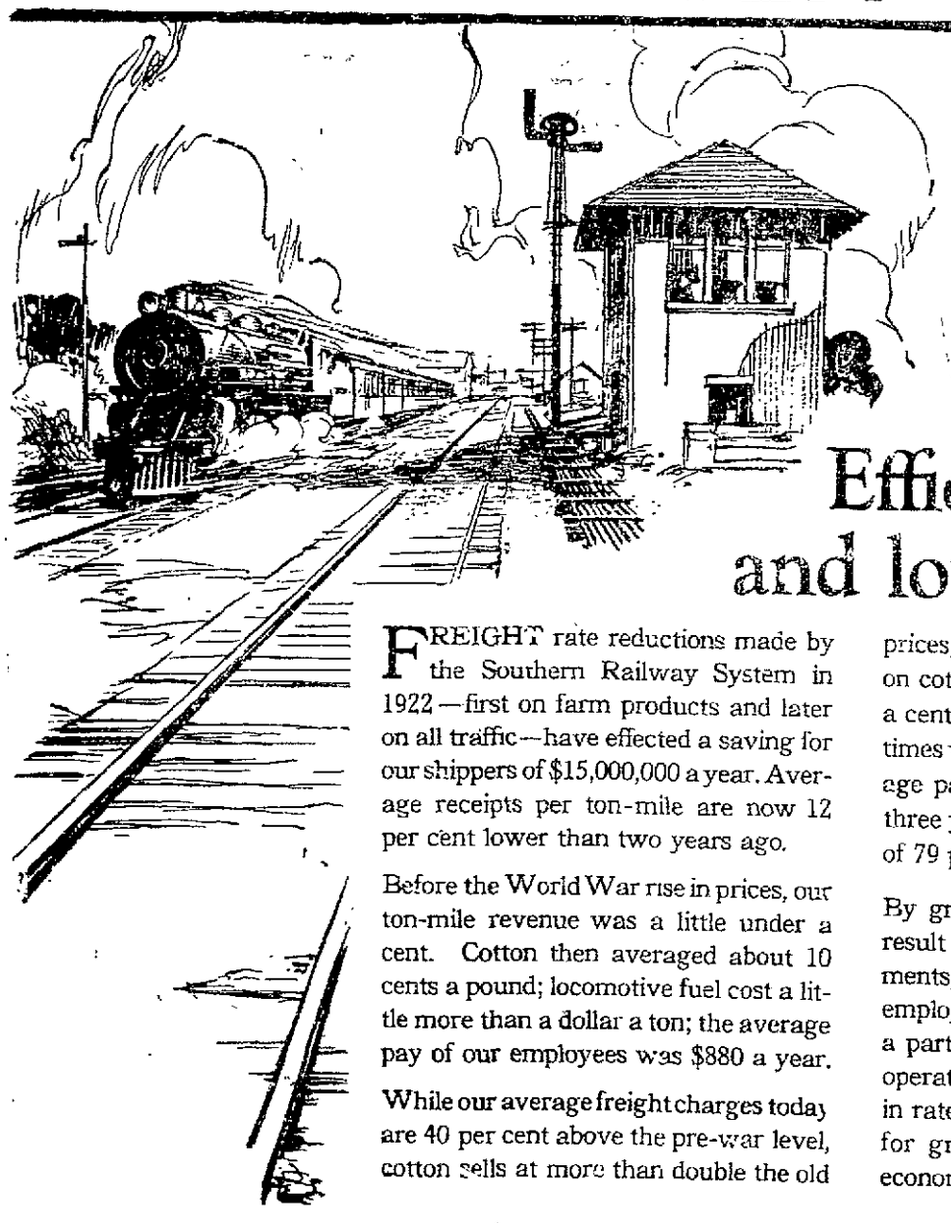
SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM



Efficiency and lower rates

FREIGHT rate reductions made by the Southern Railway System in 1922—first on farm products and later on all traffic—have effected a saving for our shippers of $15,000,000 a year. Average receipts per ton-mile are now 12 per cent lower than two years ago.

Before the World War rise in prices, our ton-mile revenue was a little under a cent. Cotton then averaged about 10 cents a pound; locomotive fuel cost a little more than a dollar a ton; the average pay of our employees was $880 a year.

While our average freight charges today are 40 per cent above the pre-war level, cotton sells at more than double the old prices, and our average freight charge on cotton shipments is only a quarter of a cent a pound. Coal costs nearly three times what it formerly did, and the average pay of our employees for the past three years has been $1,580, an increase of 79 per cent.

By greater efficiency of operation, the result of large expenditures for betterments, and the loyal cooperation of our employees, we have been able to absorb a part of the excess of the increase in operating costs over the smaller increase in rates. We are continually working for greater operating economies.

Southern Railway System deposits in Southern banks an average of $150,500 each banking hour.

Of course I'm having a lot of fun making two-reel comedies, but I banker to show my art and get fan letters from flappers in the East, write to Valentino and Lew Cody and those others handsome devils.

I ain't got such a good figger—that's how I got into the Follies—but I wish I had the sex appeal to get into DeMille's nightgown drawers.

That's what I'd like to be thankful for!

BY MARY PICKFORD

First, I should like to be thankful for having done something immortal, for having left some indisputably lasting impression: not in a narrowly selfish or vainglorious sense, but in the assurance that some work of mine were accounted a relic of our common human striving and an honor to my profession.

Second, for having freed myself of that fear, that timidity which is the weed strangling humanity: keeping many of us in old ruts, reluctant to assert and do the valid things for which we might be temporarily misunderstood.

Until I have achieved them, I shall be thankful that I retain the active dissatisfaction which spurs one on to desired accomplishment.

BY BABE RUTH

One more home run to beat out Cy Williams? Well that would have been nice.

Beat Harry Heilman for batting honors? That would have been sweet.

One more chance at the old pill in that world series eighth inning, with three men on base? Say, I'd have given my shirt for one more sock.

But if I only had somebody, up here on this farm, to get out and chop all the wood that's waiting for me—that's what I would like to be thankful for!

BY GEORGE JEAN NATHAN

I'd be thankful if the taste of the American public would improve up to the point where it would be possible to produce Rostand's "The Last Night of Don Juan."

I'd be thankful if a traveling man ever came to New York and asked to see something besides a girlie show.

I'd be thankful if Americans got over the passion for expressing everything in figures—57 varieties, 99 44-100 per cent pure, 100 per cent Americans, etc.

BY SENATOR MAGNUS JOHNSON

First, I should like to have the opportunity to be thankful for the complete absence of poverty, misery, hatred, heartaches and worry throughout the whole world.

Second, I should like to be thankful for the existence of prosperity and happiness among the farmers, workers and business people of America. The knowledge that every person in the world was enjoying the full fruits of his efforts would make me very thankful indeed. And while the realization of these things seems far away, yet I find it within me today to raise my voice in thanks that we are making progress toward the consummation of these ideals.

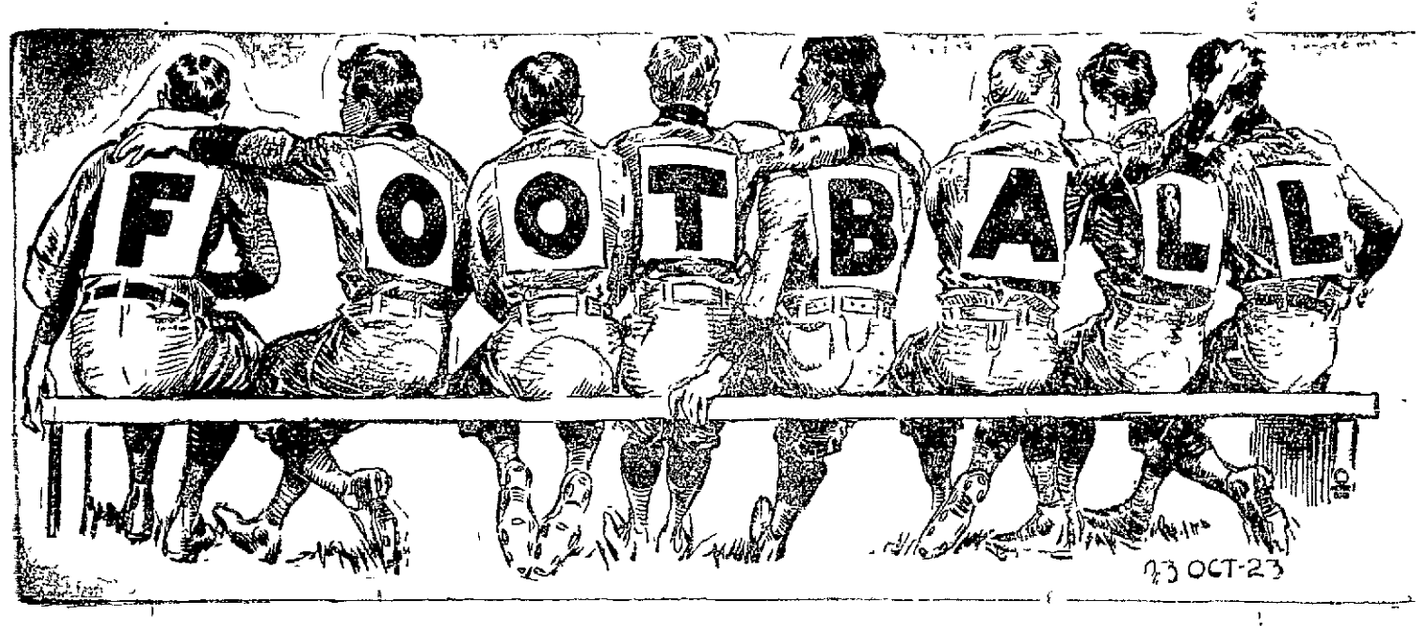
Come On Middlesboro!

We're Back of You!



Are the People of Middlesboro Loyal to Their High School?

Here is a Way to Prove Your Loyalty

We have a school in Middlesboro which is second to none in the state, and when our football team journeys to Pineville on Thanksgiving it should be the duty of every man, woman and child who is physically able, to go with them, and help our boys give Pineville a cleaning.

Parade a Mile Long

An orchestra on a truck will lead the parade followed by the team, and every car owner in the city is urged to fall in line and be ready for the start, promptly at 1 P. M., in front of Cumberland Hotel. Let us make this parade a mile long, and let every car fly the M. H. S. Colors. Let us show our boys that we are backing them in their clean, hard fight.

Let's Go!

M. H. S. AT END OF SUCCESSFUL FOOTBALL YEAR

ONLY ONE DEFEAT MARS SEASON RECORD AND THAT WITH COLLEGE TEAM NO SERIOUS INJURIES DURING YEAR

SECOND TEAM GETS CREDIT FOR TRAINING FIRST TEAM

This has [illegible] Middlesboro [illegible] only because [illegible] football [illegible] this [illegible] one of the [illegible] played with [illegible] school teams. The [illegible] had [illegible] been able to [illegible] game. The boys have kept [illegible] with a whole hearted [illegible] marked here. Special commendation is also due the scrub team, the members of which have [illegible] practice every night and have by their hard endeavor made them [illegible] team.

The first game of the season was with Junction City High school here when the score was 85 to 0 in favor of M. H. S. In this game the local team played all their substitutes before the game was over and four of them, by agreement, did not even enter the game.

The next game was here with M. H. S. defeated Stanford High school 9 to 0. Stanford had a well coached team and played such clean football that this was one of the most enjoyable games of the year. Features of the game were the field goal kicked by King and the play of Sewell who got a fumble and ran sixty yards for a touchdown. Pall, quarterback for the visitors, was their star.

Middlesboro played Lebanon next and this game was rendered particularly exciting by the fact that the opponents outweighed the home team about ten pounds to a man. The score was 12 to 0 in our favor. Johnson was their fullback who made a great impression on Middlesboro fans.

The first game away from home was with Harlan when the local team went there to play the Harlan High School team and defeated them 10 to 0. Middlesboro scored on a pass, Van Beber to Callison, and by a field goal by York.

WINDOWS BOOST FOOTBALL GAME

LOCAL MERCHANTS DECORATE TO SHOW M. H. S., THEY'RE BEHIND THEM

Local merchants indicate by their show windows that they have been seized with the spirit of Thanksgiving. This is manifested not only in displays of Thanksgiving merchandise but in unique and attractive displays advertising the biggest football game of the season. The prevailing idea seems to be that victory in the coming event is a turkey and that Middlesboro will capture it from Pineville.

The window at Smith's drug store leads in variety and originality of display. There are a number of heads on display painted like footballs, framed photographs of the M. H. S. teams are prominently displayed and a large sign reads "We have Pineville's turkey," a small cannon in the center of the window has a placard over it bearing the legend: "The shot that killed Pineville."

The Reams Hardware company has a number of cannon in its window. In appearance they are like the guns that broke the Hindenburg line, though the substance with which they are loaded is nothing more deadly than carbide. A number of turkey roasters of various patterns are also on display.

The Dixie Hardware window is prominently displaying carving sets of various patterns as well as a number of roasters. There are some turkeys in the window, too, but being made of cardboard they are not of an edible nature. The window of the Middlesboro Hardware company displays some attractive carving sets and other seasonable merchandise.

Shelburne's has an attractive window displaying incense burners and oriental perfumes. The football spirit is indicated by the trimmings of yellow and white, Middlesboro high school colors.

Practically all the windows have been trimmed recently displaying seasonable merchandise. All which are not advertising the coming football game by their display of goods have large placards predicting a victory for M. H. S. in the inter-city clash.

Shelburne's store will have chrysanthemums for sale for Thanksgiving and Lee's drug store will have flowers for those who have placed orders.

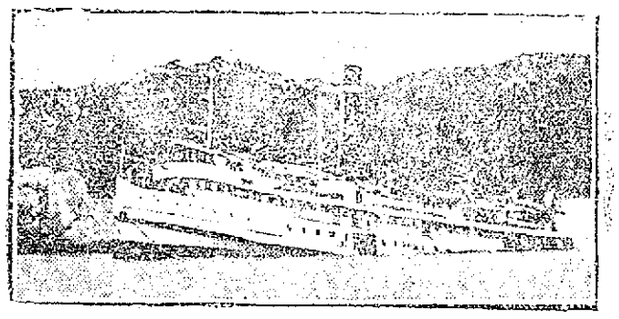
FIRST PHOTO OF TYPHOON



The typhoon that struck Hongkong a few weeks ago was the severest in many years. Photo shows one of the many passenger ships blown up on the rocks in Hongkong harbor. Many persons were drowned in the typhoon.

THE TEAM

EARL SLONE, captain of the team, is playing his second year of football. He's some captain. Slone is an excellent leader, a clean player and always tries to get in every play. He is a consistent ground gainer and can always be depended on, seldom reporting an injury. He specializes in end but he is also a good back field man. Slone played basketball and he is to play as well as football this year.

BEN VAN BIBBER, quarterback, is one of the fastest players in the state. He runs the team well and has the confidence of every one of his players. Ben's first varsity year at football and his career on the gridiron has been a brilliant one. He was catcher on the Tri-State baseball team last year.

BILLY FAULKNER has played fullback in every game of the year. He is particularly good at plunging the line and is noted for his ability of never getting hurt. This is his second year at football. He also distinguished himself last year as guard on the basketball team.

RUSS BROWN is playing football for the first time this year but he has developed quickly into one of the fastest men on the team. He is a good kicker and will possibly be in the Thanksgiving game as fullback. Brown has made an excellent record in basketball and track as well as football.

HOMER GRIFFITH is the smallest man on the team. He is playing his second year of football. Homer is distinguished particularly by his pep and the fact that he is in every play. He played basketball last year, too.

NEILL CALLISON is playing his second year of football and a very good game at that. He plays end. He is a good tackler and is very good at receiving passes. Neill played basketball and baseball last year.

EAN S. GIBSON is one of Virginia's contributions to the team. He plays tackle and besides being a hard tackler he is developing into a good kicker. This is his second year at the game.

HARRY McGIBONEY, in his second year of football, is playing a good game. He is a clean player and an earnest one. He puts a good offense and defense game and he seldom misses a tackle.

BILLY HAYNES, the baby of the team, is in his first year of football. He is a good runner in field and is learning the fine points of the game fast. Next year he should be one of the best line men in the state.

BILL EVANS, in his first year of football, has played a consistent game all season. He always stops the hole over him in a fine and he likes hard and low.

HENRY SEWELL, our center, is one of the best centers in the state. He seldom makes a bad pass and is one of the best defensive men on the team. This is his second year of playing.

KEE KINNAIRD will probably play in the Thanksgiving Day game as fullback. He has been one of the best players on the scrub team this year and has served them as quarterback throughout the season. He plays an excellent game and runs hard and low.

"THE GINGHAM GIRL" HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Of all the musical comedies revealed in New York during the past decade, none achieved more striking success than "The Gingham Girl," which is credited with having put the new Earl Carrol theatre on the theatrical map of Broadway. Mr. Carroll had encountered far greater difficulties than usually beset the promoters of new theatres, for after completing his handsome playhouse, he tried out half a dozen attractions before Messrs Schwab and Russel brought out "The Gingham Girl." It was an instantaneous success, and filled the Carroll for some thirteen months, enabling Mr. Carroll not only to recoup his heavy losses, but firmly establish his theatre in popular favor. This clever musical play has made the fortunes of all concerned, and its success on tour has been so great that two additional companies are now presenting the piece. The organization to appear at the Manring Theatre, Wednesday, Dec. 5th comprises all the stars of the original cast, and the production is complete in every detail.

DRAMATIC SCENE FROM D.W. GRIFFITH'S "ORPHANS OF THE STORM"

STORES TO CLOSE FOR THANKSGIVING

Day To Be Generally Observed Here In Places Of Business—Special Theatre Programs.

Thanksgiving will be generally observed in Middlesboro and vicinity tomorrow by a closing of practically all factories, mines and other business. Many of the stores will remain closed throughout the day, others will close at noon for the remainder of the day and a few will remain open all day. A complete list of these was published last week.

The Log Mountain Coal company, operating a number of mines employing several hundred men, will be closed all day Thursday, according to Major E. S. Holbern. Many of the other mines are running only part time and will not be in operation tomorrow. The Climax Coal company announces that its mines will not close for the holiday.

The Big Ben overall factory will close at noon, giving its operatives the afternoon off from duty. The Martin-Page suspender factory will also give its employes a half-holiday.

The post office will, of course, be closed for the holiday as will also the public schools and the two banks. The Daily News force will take the day off and there will not be an issue of the paper tomorrow.

Almost every one apparently is planning to attend the football game at Pineville tomorrow afternoon, though there will be adequate amusement for those wishing to remain in town. The Manring and the Browning theatres will have special holiday programs tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night.

MUCH PRAISE FOR SCRUB PLAYERS

COACH AND PLAYERS GRATEFUL FOR WORK OF SECOND TEAM —GOOD MATERIAL FOR NEXT YEAR

In the final summing up of the football season and the giving of credit where credit is due, no small amount of praise is due the M. H. S. second teams, or the "Scrubs," as they are known in football parlance. The coach the superintendent, the members of the first team and the men in town who have made the matter a study say that the faithful work of these men has been a very great influence on the year's success.

Coach Kilpatrick, speaking yesterday of the year's work, praised the Scrub players particularly high, relating how they had been out every single evening to practice and were still out this week when their last game has been played and they stand no chance of playing on the first team. They have been the buffer for the others all season, he said, and the result has been a real football team.

These boys, some or all of them, will be on the first team next year and their consistent work and splendid courage will undoubtedly make for a team that can not lose.

WAR ON FRAUD

Governor Charles A. Templeton of Connecticut has announced a thorough investigation will be made into practices of alleged "diploma ring," whereby many men have, it is said, obtained doctors degrees through bribery. Many hospitals in various sections are said to be involved.

[illegible] meal. Let her [illegible] real meal. If your wife has invited someone who doesn't agree with your ideas on the League of Nations don't forget to carry on with a smile just the same. It helps the liver secretions. If you are an inside worker try and take a few miles before dinner. It's a wonderful tonic to the appetite. Drop in on someone who is less fortunate than yourself and help a good sized package of thanksgiving cheer in the shape of a dinner basket. Your own dinner will taste much better and it won't impair your health one bit.

Many people will find a real help to digestion if regular eating habits are observed. The change of food for the day is the real joy. Don't think you have to eat everything. Enjoy the occasion by the absence of any hurry or worry. They increase blood pressure and bring on that throbbing headache.

Don't Hurry

Run your dinner on schedule time and don't keep the main part of the family waiting two or three hours. He will hurry his eating and approach the feast in a wrong attitude of mind.

Don't forget to enjoy the vegetables. Use plenty of green ones. They help the turkey or roast pig on its way rejoicing. Your health will not suffer if celery, spinach, cabbage or some tempting dish of tomatoes form a part of your menu. The best food of season is reason.

The fruits are preferred for dessert in place of rich pudding or pies. You will get plenty of carbohydrates in the balance of the dinner.

Plan to spend at least half an hour at the table and eat slowly, chewing you food well. This will make a smaller portion more tasteful, satisfying and healthful.

And, lastly, a dinner of herbs is sweet, they say, if a certain thing is around that day. Speak of quiet word of praise to mother, wife, Aunt Jennie or Sister Sue, and say the dinner was fine, at least. It will make her heart beat a little faster or increase the blood pressure for the time being. But no doctor would think of prescribing for such a condition. It's good for what ails you.

AN EXAMPLE OF PERFECT BLOCKING

This remarkable picture taken at a Notre Dame game shows clearly the perfect system of blocking developed and employed by coach Knute Rockne. It will be seen that every member of the Notre Dame line but one is engaged in clearing the field for the play leaving the fullback in this case Quinlan clear to run unobstructed field.

CHILDREN BUY A STICK OF GUM

Children in Berlin are playing with thousand mark notes instead of paper dolls. They paste a string of zeros after the numeral making believe the quintillion would be sufficient to purchase a piece of chocolate. And that's about all it would get them. The mark once mighty throughout Germany has fallen, just as the Kaiser has fallen—only a bit harder.
